Sudanese Fellowship

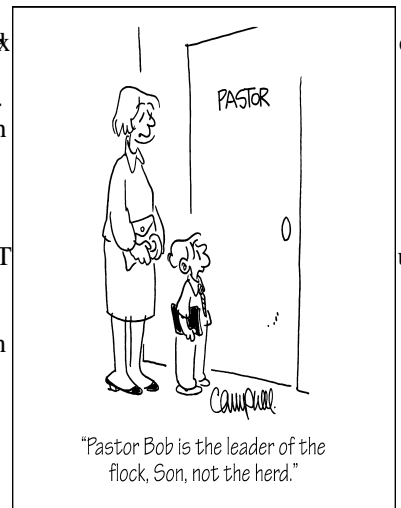

The Christian family is connected around this world. Recently Don Stilwell from South Carolina emailed me. He got my name from Southern Sudan. Dr. Rob Congdon at the Doro Hospital told him that there was a Mabaan group in Salt Lake City. Don sent Bibles in the Mabaan language--enough for every household in the Sudanese Fellowship. Pastor Ginger will present them during the Mabaan worship on February 21 at 2 PM.

Local Mission News

An on-going mission project at Wasatch Presbyterian Church is the monthly Community Food Co-op of Utah. A volunteer-powered, nonprofit food buying network, the Co-op brings people together for food, community and savings of up to 50% on high-quality fresh foods. An effort is made to use local products. The larger the number of participants, the lower the costs to all. Food stamps are accepted. Check it out at www.foodco-op.net. You may sign up on-line or through the mail, using the sign up sheets in the Co-op newsletters found throughout WPC. Please call Rafael or Loyda Kyremes at 801-487-0478 if you have questions.

A Thank You Note

To: My Wasatch Church Family

My sincere thanks to all of you for your flowers, your cards, your calls, your visits, and most of all your prayers for I am sure they are what kept any pain from rearing its ugly head during this ordeal. The nurses can not understand why that is so, but I really do not miss having pain at all. My hip is healing and I am starting to put some weight on it. Now all it takes is time.

Utah Youth Mentor Project

In Salt Lake County, about 200 { q w v j " ò c i g " q w v ö " year. One day they are wards of the state. The next day they are on their own.

The Utah Youth Mentor Project helps aged-out youth pursue job training or college and helps them find safe places to live so they can cope with jobs and school. It also assists the formation of mentor groups, where adult mentors are matched up with aging-out youth for a two-year commitment. Last year Wasatch Presbyterian joined the Mentor Project with seven mentors and seven young friends.

Our friends cover a gamut of personalities, abilities, hopes, fears, challenges, and motivation. Two are just finishing high school and expect to be out of foster care this summer. One of these has been awarded a $5,000 scholarship that her mentor helped her apply for; she also thinks óand we pray ó that she finally, on her last chance, passed the Utah Basic Skills math test, again with the help of intense, Starbucks-fueled studying she did with her mentor in the week before the test.

Two are attending SLCC. Of these, one is marvelously self-directed toward a career in auto mechanics; the other is at SLCC because her mentor realized the deadline was about to pass and got her to the registration office on the last day, enduring a several hour marathon with hundreds of other last minute students. She attends school diligently and on time, even though her first class is at 8:00 a.m. One youth left Utah and is no longer in the program. The other two are struggling to find direction, and their mentors are struggling to keep track of where they are, how to contact them and how to help. Pray for them.

Y R E ø u " o g p v q t u " c Randy Cate, John Louviere, Bonnie Mitchell, Peggy Riedel/Harold Sears, Betsy Sutherland, and MJ/Bob Dow. If you would like to know more about being a mentor, talk to any of us. Not every story is guaranteed to have a happy ending, but the Mentor Project means there will be more happy endings than there would have been otherwise.

While mentors serve entirely on a volunteer basis, the Mentor Project has a small but energetic and highly talented staff paid primarily by a grant that expires at the end of 2010. The Board is working diligently to secure funding for 2011 and beyond. Anyone who has, or knows someone who has, a talent for fundraising, grant seeking/writing, or great contacts, please contact me. Thanks to Y R E ø u " U g t x k e g " E Q e v q d g t ø u " R g c e g donating the local portion of to the Project.

Salt Shakers

It is time to sign up for Salt Shakers. Salt Shakers is a social dinner group that meets in groups of eight every two o q p v j u " k p " r g q r n pair hosts and prepares the main dish, one pair brings desert. We also try to accommodate people who cannot host in their home. Sign up begins March 7 in Fellowship Hall or you may call Pat Gay Madsen at 801-359-3711.

Hiking

There's still snow in the mountains, but the Jordan River Parkway is clear for hiking. Join us on Saturday, March 13 and we'll explore the Parkway south and north from California St. (1300 South), investigating a labyrinth surrounded by benches inlaid with mosaics, a park with animal mosaics inlaid in a pathway, the Peace Gardens, and the River Bend ecological park. Meet at the church at 9 a.m. to car-pool. Bring water and snacks. Led by Doug Howe with Dick Wunder as guide. Call Dick (801-268-6546) with questions.

Parish Nursing at Wasatch

Y g ø t g " u v c t v k p i " c " p g y " o Wasatch: Parish Nursing. This is actually a ministry that was practiced before, but will start again with two new nurses. Parish Nursing is a ministry of health and healing through wellness promotion, health education and advocacy in the context of Christian spirituality. The Parish Nurses will provide counsel, prayer and information about health to congregation members.

We discussed this program with the Session and decided to report to the Pastors and the Deacons and work with the Deacons and Care Team who coordinate visits and advise the Parish Nurse of areas of need in the congregation. We will also coordinate other health care professionals in the congregation for special programs.

We hope to begin this program in earnest this O c { 0 " Y g ø t g " x g t { " g z e k v g starting this great program here at Wasatch and will keep you informed of our progress and plans. ### Pastor Nominating Committee

The PNC completed filling out what is known as the Church Information Form (CIF) several weeks ago. The CIF is the critical piece of information that interested prospective ministers will look at to determine their interest in becoming our pastor. The CIF was approved by Session and then forwarded on to the Presbytery Committee on Ministry that also gave its approval. The CIF has now been forwarded to PC(USA) headquarters where it will become available to pastors that are looking for a new position. These pastors will then complete a Personal Information Form (PIF) that will be forwarded to us. Each member of the PNC will then be given a copy for review. We are currently waiting for PIFs to arrive. Stay tuned for further information
